

Stéphane Verdoux

Stéphane VERDOUX is the co-founder & Associate Director at STRATEIS. He is an active speaker and consultant on diverse topics related to Policy Deployment, Balanced Scorecards, Process Improvement & Corporate Social Responsibility. Senior Lecturer for the University of Bordeaux & Toulouse in France, he has run executive conferences and training seminars for several companies and organisation. His work on Quality Management & Excellence has brought him into over three hundred companies in Europe.

In 2003, Stéphane started his collaboration with EFQM first as a European Award Assessor and later as an EFQM Assessor Trainer.

In 2008, STRATEIS, in partnership with AFNOR, has launched the first « Community of Practice on Excellence » which today totalised up to 100 SME, Public & Private sector large organisations that benchmark together five times a year.

The same year Stéphane co-authored a Book entitled « Process Centric Organisations » which received a special price at the French Quality-Performance Book of the year.

Since 2009, Stéphane has developed various Serious Games on Excellence & CSR and co-authored with Patrick IRIBARNE several books as « The EFQM Guide for Assessment », « High Level Performance in Public Organisation », « Assessing and developing Sustainable Performance »

Since 2014, Stéphane and his associates has supported 5 winning companies at the EFQM Excellence Award.