Job Title: Quality Assurance Officer

Profile

- Can you introduce yourself shortly? Ivan Korunoski
Based on mine believes, education and 20 years of working experience it has become part of my personality and leadership style to strive for adding value for stakeholder's. I believe that positive attitude and constructive dialogue together with never ending development of agile organisational capabilities that will lead to sustained result are the solid foundations for achieving Excellence.
- How did you start your EFQM adventure?
I was working for Sony-Ericsson and I wanted to introduce common working methodology that will inspire Leaders and People. My ambition was to build, in inviting way, the awareness of relation between organisational enablers and achieved results. At that point of time I got in touch with EFQM Excellence Model and the adventure started.
- A brief description of your organisation's use of EFQM?
European Spallation Source (ESS ERIC) has started Journey for Excellence and we are currently introducing and deploying EFQM model with great support from ESS Executive Management Team through series of management assessments that derives to ESS wide improvement activities. We within ESS, are well aware that "Excellence in Science requires Excellence in Management" and during the 2017 we have achieved "Committed to Excellence" recognition as confirmation of the successful first step in our Excellence journey.
