

EFQM Member Ambassador's Profile

Organisation: Enagas

Job title: Head of Digital Transformation

Profile

- Can you introduce yourself shortly?

I am Victor Gimeno Granda, current Head of Digital Transformation in Enagas, holding over 14 years of experience as strategic advisor for transformation projects and digital transformation strategies. Derived from this role, I am vice president of AEC (Spanish Agency for Quality) Innovation Community.

Besides this, I work as a professor in ICAI University for executive programs in industry 4.0 and digital strategy.

In my spare time I love to spend time with my loved ones, as well as doing sports mostly in the nature.

- How did you start your EFQM adventure?

I started working in EFQM with the EFQM team leads in Enagás, José Miguel Tudela and Carlos Ruiz. My collaborations started with workshops on excellence, but shortly after they derived in sharing my knowledge in functional strategy, and eventually in digital transformation.

- A brief description of your organisation's use of EFQM?

Enagás started working with the EFQM Model 10 years ago with the aim of advancing in management excellence. The model has become a lever to promote improvement in key management issues of the company, and has contributed to improving both economic results and those related to our stakeholders. It has also helped us to establish a common language, thinking and management style aimed at continuous improvement, innovation and excellence in all areas of the company.

- Any comment or last word?

It is a pleasure for me to join the EFQM community. Due to this I will try to share my knowledge and experience in excellence and digital strategy & transformation.
